❖ How much do Winngie Partnership make?

It's a good question. Honestly, we do not have answer, but we can give you some ideas. Normally, the exchange offices are charging at least 10-15% commission fees over each exchange. When you have customers over Winngie who want to exchange 500 USD for example, you may get 50-75 USD as the service fee.

However, we're advising you to keep the commission rates lowering to the percent, such as 8% (compared to 10-15%). The purpose is to get good reviews from your customers. It will increase your opportunities to match more Winngie users around the world. Even you only get just 5 customers over Winngie app you already earn more than the yearly subscription fee of Winngie which is just 199.9 USD.

❖ How will people will you, and how can you meet with them to perform exchange /transaction?

The Winngie Users will find you by Winngie GPS or transfer requests. By Winngie exchange, the Winngie partner needs to put the order of exchange on the map for customers better finding you. In exchange part, there are over 120 types of currencies available. Feel free to put the currency and amount you have, and wait for your customers. OR you can also check if there are new orders coming near you shown on Winngie map based on your GPS location. Winnie is currently expanding its global users day by day, and needs some time to collect more users. It takes patient and we also need more partners to be the Winngie net and make this system sustainable.

The transfer part functions by order match. The Winngie partners need to put the orders based on location, such as cities or countries. Please note that at Winngie Transfer part, it is based on USD currently. The match order will be showed on your pending request based on your location. If you are Winngie partner, it will be free to start a chat with this match.

Because of transfer part, money will not be flowed between countries. As Winngie partner, you need to have another contact at your transfer/receive designed city/country. For example, you put an order on transfer from Thailand to your located country, Brazil. It means your customers are at Thailand and they put an order to transfer to Brazil. You start to chat with your Thailand customers and accept help them accept 5000 USD to their assigned contact in Brazil. At the meanwhile, you need to have your trusted contact in Thailand who can receive 5000 USD there. Once your Thailand contact receives the money and report to you, you will pass 5000 USD to your Thailand customers' designed contact.

❖ What's the importance to have good reviews and 5 star?

Giving the reviews enhances credibility, communication and search visibility on your own biz if you are a service provider. After you finish the whole process of exchange or transfer order, the whole deal is done. Give your customers the reviews and request them to give the review back. These reviews, if positive, will benefit to your next time service, give you valuable insight, and improve your growing business image, such as gift shop. These reviews will also influence your partnership right if your reviews are too low. Winngie may take some action to suspend your partnership account to protest customers.

❖ What's the pricing for monthly or yearly partnership subscription?

There are only two subscription package for Winngie partnership. One is monthly subscription fee on 19.99 USD. Another one is yearly subscription fee on 199.99 USD. Paid by credit card under Google Play and Apple Store.
